TEDDY DISAGREES WITH TAFT VIEW

Regarding Reclamation of Mississippi Swamp Lands in Speech Yesterday.

SOUTHERN TRIP NEARING END

Delivered Feature Address at Hot Springs, Ark., Yesterday—Touches On "New Nationalism" Again —Given Welcome.

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 10.—Theodore Roosevelt placed himself on record today as opposed to the view expressed by President Taft of the work of the conserving and developing the National resources of the country. Colonel Roosevelt declared that the Federal government should do all it legitimately could to assist in the reclamation of the great swamp areas of the Mississippi Valley.

In a speech at the National Conservation Congress in St. Paul on September 6th, President Taft said he believed the work should be done by the States and that he deprecated the idea that the National government should do it.

As soon as Colonel Roosevelt reached Hot Springs today Governor Donghey and several other men who are interested in obtaining help from the National Government in the reclamation project, asked him to touch on the subject in his address to the Arkansas State fair. Colonel Roosevelt promised them to do so.

In his speech Colonel Roosevelt said: "Arkansas is one of the group of States with an enormous area of swamp lands. Until drained the land is worthless; and when drained it is a block of the most fertile land in the entire nation.

"The National government must do its part in helping in the drainage, because the drainage is an inter-state affair. Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee, Louisiana and Mississippi are all concerned and ought all to work together; and the National government should render all possible, legitimate aid."

It is estimated that there are 25,000,000 acres of swamp lands in the States mentioned by Colonel Roosevelt.

Colonel Roosevelt made his remarks on the subject in connection with a speech on "New Nationalism."

One of the largest crowds which Colonel Roosevelt has addressed during his Southern trip was at the fair grounds to hear him.

After he had been welcomed to Hot Springs by Governor Donaghey and a reception committee, Colonel Roosevelt went to the fair grounds.

First there came two trumpeters, mounted on horseback, dressed in gilt uniforms and blaring forth a salute. They rode down the race track in front of the crowd, followed by a company of the Arkansas National Guard. Then came the Governor, who was seated in an open carriage.

He took his seat on a stand across the track from the grandstand where Colonel Roosevelt was seated. The former President was brought over to him.

Sixteen hundred school children, dressed in red, white and blue costumes, and arranged so as to represent the flag, were seated in a grand stand back of the Colonel and the Governor. They sang "America" and "Dixie."

Confederate Veterans in their uniforms of gray were seated on one side of the stand, in front of the children. On the other side, were some Grand Army Vetrans in their blue uniforms. A young woman in blue strewed flowers over the Confederate veterans, who dodged and blinked as the shower descended.

A young woman in gray did the same for the Grand Army men and then both young women threw roses over Colonel Roosevelt. Some one released four white doves, which symbolized the peace which now exists between the blue and the gray.

Governor Donahey introduced Colonel Roosevelt and, although he is a Democrat, he said that every one ought to give the colonel moral support. He said that perhaps the people of Arkansas might have not agreed with the colonel in all he had done, but that every American citizen could agree with him "in the mighty struggle he is making for purity in private life and more honesty in public life." He is fighting for the common good of the country," continued the Governor, "and in that fight every man on this continent ought to give him his moral support. He ought to have the support of every lover of liberty, of every lover of fair play. That he has more executive force than any other man before the American people today is obvious to all."

In his speech Colonel Roosevelt said:

"Fundamentally the welfare of all of us depends more upon the welfare of the farmer than upon that of any other man, and we should all of us join in doing whatever can be done for building up the man who lives on the farm in the country."

Colonel Roosevelt then spoke of the

HUGHES NOW COURT JUSTICE

Former New York Governor Took the Oath of Office When Supreme Court Convened Yesterday—Tribute to Fuller.

Wasington, October 10.—After the oath of office, as associate justice was administered today to Charles E. Hughes, of New York, the Supreme court of the United States adjourned until tomorrow, out of respect to the memory of the late chief justice, Melville W. Fuller. The court was in session eight minutes.

Every available seat in the little court room was occupied by persons especially interested in the events of the opening day. The mother, the wife and the daughter of the new justice were the first of the relatives of the court to arrive. Attorney General Wickersham and Secretary Nagel represented the cabinet.

Presiding Justice Harlan announced as soon as the court had taken its place, that the President had appointed Mr. Hughes to the bench, that the Senate had confirmed the nomination, and that Mr. Hughes was present. He directed Clerk McKinney, by whom Mr. Hughes was seated, to read the latter's commission.

"The court extends a cordial welcome," said Justice Harlan, as the clerk finished reading.

He then directed the new member to take the oath of office, the oath of allegiance having already been administered in the robing room a few minutes before. Mr. Hughes read the oath in an impressive manner, and at its conclusion, repeated after the clerk the words "So help me God," and Marshal Wright escorted the new member to his seat.

These formalities over, Justice Harlan proceeded to announce the death of the Chief Justice.

"Since it's last session this court has sustained a very great loss," he said, "the earthly career of the chief justice has been closed by death. This sad event occurred on the 4th day of July of the present year, at his Summer residence, after nearly 23 years of continuous and distinguished service on this bench. He met the final summons with that calmness of spirit and composure of mind that marked his whole life. From his early manhood he walked in the good way, uprightly before God and his fellowmen, and passed from this life into the life beyond the grave in the confident belief. I doubt not that the Maker and Ruler of the earth ordereth all things aright. This court, indeed, the nation, will miss him, but the memory of his stainless life will ever remain with his countrymen as a priceless heritage."

THE REVOLUTION SPREADS TO SPAIN

Increasing Excitement at Barcelona Following Portugal Revolution.

ANNIVERSARY OF PROF. FERRER

Crisis May Come Then—Fugitives Being Reported in Other Countries. King Manuel's Final Letter. Other Notes.

Barcelona, Spain, Oct. 10.—A state of increasing excitement reigns in Barcelona. The success of the revolution in Portugal appears to have fanned the fire of rebellion that has smouldered since the furious outbreak of a year ago.

There was the greatest animation in the streets today. The people pretend not to notice the patrols and civil guards, which are being strengthened gradually, in preparation for eventualities October 13th, the anniversary of the execution of Prof. Francisco Ferrer, the director of the modern school of Barcelona, who was convicted of having incited last year's revolutionary movement.

General Weyler, Captain General of Catalonia, admits that the strike of miners here is taking on a revolutionary character. He says that his orders are to suppress any active disloyalty with a firm hand.

The police declare that the main fear at the Ferrer anniversary is from an anarchistic plot. An extraordinary number of suspicious foreigners have arrived here lately and all are provided with some sort of papers, making their expulsion difficult. It is estimated that the anarchists now under police supervision in this city number ten thousand. Most of these are foreigners.

King's Final Message.

Gibraltar, Oct. 10.—Before leaving Portugal King Manuel sent the following autograph letter to the Portuguese premier:

"I am compelled, owing to stress of circumstances to embark, but wish to inform the people of Portugal that my conscience is clear. I have always acted as a faithful Portuguese and I have always done my duty. I will ever remain at heart a true Portuguese, and hope that my country will do me justice and try to understand my feelings. My departure must in no way be taken as an act of abdication."

Lisbon, Oct. 10.—The provisional government is fixed in its determination to send Monks and Nuns out of the country. The ministers in the interior at Alemada will personally conduct the examination in the cases of foreigners connected with the religious orders.

A decree was published in the official gazette today expelling the Jesuits and the foreign orders. The case of the Portuguese monks and nuns, however, these may return to their families if they renounce their orders, otherwise they must quit the country.

DIED IN FIT OF PASSION.

Tenant of Mr. W. H. Farmer, Near Laurinburg.—Mrs. H. D. Gibson.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., Oct. 10.—Under unusual circumstances, Mr. Joe Pate, a tenant for Mr. W. H. Farmer, dropped dead this morning about 8 o'clock. According to rule Mr. Farmer personally supervises the weighing of all cotton picked from his farm. Because of the inclement weather on Saturday all the cotton on the farm was not weighed, among which was some belonging to Mr. Pate. The report was carried to Mr. Pate that all cotton except his had been weighed and paid for. The angered Mr. Pate and he went to the home of Mr. Farmer and assailed him with words and attempted to strike him several times. Mr. Farmer, who is one of Scotland's best citizens, tried to explain and according to eye witnesses, merely avoided the blows of Mr. Pate and made no effort to strike back. Mr. Farmer put his hand upon the shoulder of Mr. Pate and led him a few steps toward the road. Mr. Pate walked only a few steps further and fell dead. It is generally known that Mr. Pate has been a great sufferer with his heart and has recently been in a critical condition.

The county physician, Dr. Peter McLean, and Coroner J. R. Jordan viewed the body and allowed it to be removed and prepared for burial without holding an inquest. No suspicion whatever rests upon Mr. Farmer. Beyond the immediate relatives no one is suffering more over the occurrence than is Mr. Farmer.

Mrs. Gibson the wife of Mr. Henry D. Gibson, who resides near Gibson, died yesterday and was buried this afternoon in the Gibson cemetery. She is survived by her husband and two daughters.

NELSON IN PRIZE RING AGAIN

Won From Monte Dale After Three Rounds Fighting in Kansas City —Nelson Has Agreed to Fight "One Round" Hogan.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 10.—In his first fight since Ad Wolgast stripped him of his championship laurels last February 22, Battling Nelson tonight won from Monte Dale, of Denver, after three rounds of fighting at 138 pounds.

At the beginning of the fourth round, Dales' seconds threw up the sponge in order to save their man from a knockout. Dale broke his left arm in the second round, and it was for this reason that his seconds said they stopped the fight. Nelson was clearly the master of his opponent, however, and would have won apparently, even though Dale had not suffered an accident.

Before the first round had gone a minute it was obvious that Nelson was the better man. He rushed into Dale after feeling him out for a few seconds. With a stiff left to the eye, Nelson drew first blood. In a few seconds, a left to Dale's stomach floored him for four seconds.

Although outclassed, Dale fought on gamely until he broke his arm. Nelson hit from all angles with great force.

After the fight Nelson announced that he had agreed to fight "One Round" Hogan, of San Francisco, ten rounds in that city on October 25th.

Marty Kane, of New York, defeated Roy Campbell, of Kansas City, in a ten round preliminary. The tars are featherweights.

ROBESON CAMPAIGN.

County Canvass Begins.—Teachers' Examination.—Personal Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., Oct. 10.—The campaign opened in this county today, the candidates speaking in Britt's township. The audience, your correspondent is told, consisted of 14 citizens besides the speakers. The Republican candidates made a good start—they had about a dray load of campaign literature all fixed up to carry out with them and drove off, forgetting the entire outfit. Tonight it is still waiting for them. It is reported that Mr. Meares, candidate for Congress, who was advertised to speak at Maxton tonight, has cancelled his engagement. We do not know if the report is true.

County Superintendent Poole will hold a public examination for teachers of the county, beginning with the white teachers Thursday. The colored teachers will be examined Friday and the Indians Saturday.

Col. N. A. McLean and Messrs. E. M. Britt, Wade Wishart and R. E. Lee are attending Supreme Court in Raleigh.—Miss Mittie Harris, who has been spending some time with relatives here, returned to her home in Wilmington this morning.

CRUISER REACHES LISBON.

American Warship Des Moines Finds Things Quiet in Republic.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Commander Luby, of the American protected cruiser, Des Moines, today reported his arrival at Lisbon and announced that he had called upon American Minister Gage; that the republican flag was flying generally; that everything was quiet, and business conditions apparently had returned to normal.

Incidentally he took occasion to say that he had every reason to believe the royal family was at Gibraltar when the Des Moines left there.

From Lourenco Marques, East Africa, Consul Chamberlain telegraphed to the State Department that the governor-general continued in office under the new regime; that the Portuguese republic had been proclaimed throughout the province, and that the transition was peaceable.

The American diplomatic representatives have been authorized to transact any necessary business with the responsible officials at Lisbon on any matters arising during the uncertain diplomatic status of the Portuguese provisional government.

ENTOMBED MINERS LIKELY ALL DEAD

Rescuers Faced Constant Peril in Fruitless Search For Missing.

OCCURED IN COLORADO MINE

Fifty Lives Probably Snuffed Out by Explosion—Mothers and Little Ones Still Have Hope, Dangerous Gases.

Starkville, Colo., Oct. 10.—As darkness settled tonight over the entrance to the Strakville mine, the hope that had buoyed up the watchers at the pit mouth throughout the day, that some of the 50 or more men entombed there would be found alive, grew faint and gloom settled again over the silent crowd.

This morning the experts at the head of the rescue party were confident that some of the men walked in by Saturday night's explosion were alive. They believed that the portable fan forcing pure air into the working would keep the men in the extreme southern portion of the mine alive until they could be reached, but as the rescue party stumbled slowly out tonight, they gave little hope of rescue.

After a day of hard work in the face of constant peril, the rescue party penetrated the mine nearly 12,000 feet, or within 900 feet within the men imprisoned nearest the main entrance.

Instead of finding the mine clear of debris and after damp at this point, the working were found to be wrecked and poisonous gases were again encountered.

It was decided to retreat to the open, leaving the portable fan going until the interior of the mine was freed of after damp.

Ten thousand feet from the entrance, the room where a fan had been operated before the explosion, was found wrecked. The fan was torn to pieces and scattered hundreds of feet. The 1,200 pound motor had been thrown 50 feet from its base.

All day long the hills facing the mine were covered with women and children, waiting for news of the entombed men. As the rescue party told that no bodies could be found, for some time the mothers gathered their little ones and settled to wait and watch through the night.

SWEEPING CHANGES ASKED.

At Convention of Episcopal Church in Cincinnati Yesterday.

Cincinnati, Oct. 10.—Resolutions and amendments calling for the changing of the name of the church; reorganization of the board of missions, a general overhauling of the methods of examination at theological seminaries and changes in the canons bearing on numerous subjects; and the question of revising the church canons regarding marriage and divorce were under discussions today at meetings of the tri-ennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal church.

After the House of Deputies had finished discussing the work among the Jews in which Rev. William Grosvenor, of New York, made a speech, the House of Bishops took up the subject and issued a decree. This stated that Jews, who had been converted to the Episcopal faith might continue the Jewish rites, festivals and ceremonies of their forefathers as historical and racial conditions, provided they did it as a matter of morality or for sanitary reasons, but not as a form of religion.

Marked changes in the missionary canon concerning the work of the board of domestic and foreign missions were proposed in the House of Deputies by George Wharton Pepper, of Philadelphia. Instead of the election in convention of 45 members of the board, the most radical change calls for 21 to be elected in convention and 24 by missionary councils. Instead of having the work of the board of missions directed by the general secretary and the president exofficio, the latter being the presiding bishop, it is asked that it be conducted by a president and four secretaries.

A resolution was also offered in the House of Deputies that recognition of the fact that the Episcopal church is part of the Holy Catholic church be put on the title page of the Book of Common Prayer. Both of the resolutions will be taken up for final settlement later.

Rev. Jos. D. Carey, of Saratoga, introduced a resolution asking for a commission to arrange for the celebration in 1911 of the 300th anniversary of the first publication of the King James version of the Bible.

In a memorial to the House of Deputies, Atlantic City asked for the next convention. New York is also reported as desiring the convention.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The population of Macon, Ga., is 40,665, an increase of 17,393, or 74.7 per cent. as compared with 23,272 in 1900.

The population of Decatur, Illinois, is 31,140, an increase of 10,386 or 50 per cent., as compared with 20,754 in 1900.

TAFT AND ROOT HELD CONFAB

Long Conference Caused Much Speculation at Beverly—Some Talk About Chief Justiceship. State Politics.

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 10.—A five-hour conference between President Taft and Senator Elihu Root, of New York, caused much speculation in Beverly today. Senator Root arrived shortly before noon and left again for New York at 7 o'clock.

He would not discuss his visit to the President in any way. As to New York State he would go no further than to say that the Republicans "have a fighting chance."

Of the Republican convention at Saratoga Mr. Root said that it did "the logical thing," but declined to go into details.

It was reported that President Taft had summoned Senator Root to talk over prospective Supreme Court appointments and other things. This report led to a revival of the rumor that Senator Root might himself become a member of that high tribunal. The Senator declared that like all good citizens he was deeply interested in the Supreme Court, but he would not say that his talk with the President had had any relation to himself.

The reports regarding Senator Root have gone so far as to indicate that he might be tendered the chief justiceship, although it has been regarded for several months past that the President had only Justice Charles E. Hughes in mind for that honor. In none of his talks recently has the President indicated a change of mind on this subject.

Certainly Senator Root did nothing today to encourage the idea that he is being considered for the Supreme Court bench.

The President will not make any announcement of his selections for the Supreme Court until Congress meets in December.

It was said tonight that Senator Root and Mr. Taft also discussed today the part that Col. Roosevelt is to play in the campaigns this year and in 1912. Both were members of the Roosevelt cabinet. Senator Root is generally regarded as a staunch supporter of the administration. President Taft has relied much upon him in getting his measures through Congress.

YOUNG MAKES A PROTEST.

Declares Himself Victim of "Political Expediency" in Virginia.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 10.—William A. Young, one of the candidates for the new Democratic Congressional nomination today issued a signed card in which he declares he has been made the victim of "political expediency," as a result of the recent primary investigation, and offered up as a "vicarious sacrifice" by the controlling power in the party, who hoped thereby to divert and still a State-wide movement unfriendly to that power. The card says in part:

"The question now before the voters is whether they will allow a movement originally in behalf of the people and fair elections to be artfully diverted to selfish ends by the nomination of a candidate on whom the 'controlling power' can rely for aid in coming contests.

"Can all the people be fooled all the time?" asks Young in capital letters.

It is admitted that Young in using the words "controlling power" refers to United States Senator Thomas S. Martin and that his charge is that Senator Martin is actively behind the candidacy of State Senator E. E. Holland, of Nansemond, who wants the new Congressional nomination.

State Senator E. E. Holland tonight denied that he is the candidate of the State Democratic "machine" for Congress in the second district.

"I have always been independent in politics, and always will be," he said. talked in politics that Senator Holland has the endorsement of United States Senator Martin, which is the recognized head of the Democratic organization in this State.

J. Peter Holland, one of the five candidates for the Congressional nomination withdrew from the race tonight. He said his withdrawal was for the purpose of relieving a "complicated and unique situation."

Those still in the race are: W. A. Young, and J. T. Deal, of Norfolk; H. L. Maynard, of Portsmouth, and E. E. Holland, of Suffolk.

ALLEGED GLASS TRUST.

Indictment of Government Sustained In Pittsburg Yesterday.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 10.—Indictments brought under the Sherman-anti-trust law, against the Imperial Glass Company, and its officers, a West Virginia corporation, were sustained in an opinion handed down in the Federal court here today by Judges Charles P. Orr and James S. Young.

A true bill against he defendants was returned by a Federal grand jury charging a conspiracy in restraint of inter-state trade in hand-blown window glass. The defendants demurred were heard in July. The officers of the company, also under indictment are Myron L. Case, of Blowing Green, Ohio, presindent; M. J. Healy, vice president, and J. G. Sayre, secretary.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 10.—Abe Attel, featherweight champion, and Jack White, of Chicago, fought 15 snappy rounds to a draw tonight. It was a scrappy fight from start to finish. In the fourth round White got in 11 good body blows, and it looked as though he could get a knockout at any moment. However, in the fifth, Attel came back strong and did to White what he had done to him in the fourth.

HEAVY DEATH TOLL IN FOREST FIRES

Over a Hundred Perished in Flames That Swept Minnesota Region.

REPORTS INCREASE HORRORS

Wild Animals and Human Beings Fled Together—Large Area Left Desolate—Terrible Results Related.

Warroad, Minn., Oct. 10.—Latest reports of the forest fires in the Rainy river region of Minnesota tonight increase the horrors of the situation if not the number of lives lost. Estimates of the number of persons killed range from 75 to 400 tonight. Several conservative men of business and authority place the deaths at more than 100. But the greater concern for the present is the rescue of the helpless and the relief of thousands of homeless men, women and children.

Stories of wild animals fleeing for safety side by side with human beings, their natural hostility and fear quenched by the horror of their situation came in today, showing the desperateness of the situation. Tales also came of mothers burned to death with their babies on the breast, and strong men calcined while endeavoring to shield their children. "It's hell down there," said Engineer Smith, of the Duluth Express today, when a reporter swung into the cab, after the train passed the fire zone. His train took many refugees from the scene of the conflagration to Winnipeg. "If the fire keeps on the way it is going, there will be mighty little left of the population of that part of Minnesota," he added.

"The flames have quieted down a little, but it only needs a puff of wind and they will start up again as bad as ever. Everything is wiped out.

"From the engine it looked as though every timber mill in the country had been burned, except that of the Shevlen-Matthieu Company, which is safe. All the lumber in the yards, however, was burned. We passed through part of the burned territory in the night and the small red flames from the smouldering mass of logs looked like a real picture of the inferno through the clouds of smoke which reeled across the path of the engine.

"All the ties of the road have been charred, and the country is level with the tracks."

Rainy River, Ont., Oct. 10.—The terrible results of the Friday, Saturday and Sunday forest fires are beginning to be realized by the disheartened and homeless thousands.

Bodies found along the railway track three miles west of Baudette were brought here today. There was not a particle of clothing left on any of them save parts of shoes. The bodies had the appearance of having been baked in a red hot oven. Searching parties were organized today and went south to relieve suffering and pick up the dead. In some instances houses near town are filled with refugees who are without food.

Many settlers got into the Rapid river.

Special Policeman Walter Farles, of Rainy River, was last night so badly beaten by hoodlums that he lay all night in a ditch in an alley unable to call for help. He probably will die. It is wonderful the fortitude even the women are showing. They are for the most part without clothes or money other than what they have on their persons, yet they are trying to show a brave spirit.

Railway officials arrived from Port Arthur today and the local officers are holding all available cars to enable the people to escape should the fire get into Rainy River. The only hope for safety is a protracted rain, or severe cold weather.

Wild animals raced wildly about the edge of the fire, and then, contrary to their habits, turned and plunged in the deep and wide Rainy river and swam across to Canada and safety. They followed the human flight, and cattle likewise, released by their owners at the approach of the flames, fled to safety. Accompanying the horses were hundreds of deer, caribou and moose, and in truth, the cattle lay down with the bears, wild cats and timber wolves and with no danger from them. They were all flying from a common enemy.

Never probably in the history of this country was there ever such a herd of wild animals as passed before the eyes of human refugees. Not one of them was shot or molested. Many tales of suffering are brought in by refugees.

The property loss in the three towns alone, including the Rat Portage Lumber Company's plant and yard at Rainy River and the yard of the Shevlin-Mathieu Lumber Company, at Shooner, will total one and a half million dollars.

The fire still threatens the few houses along the river in Old Baudette. In Rainy River 100 deputy fire wardens have been sworn in and divided into groups of ten, have started tonight the fire from all sides. Tired and worn out, destitute men and women and children roam the streets.

Mayor Williams, of Baudette, called the business men of Baudette and Shooner together on the streets here today and an organization was effected to distribute all possible supplies

LAST EXTRA OFFER IN THE CONTEST

Will be Inaugurated Next Wednesday Morning With Extra Bonus Somewhat Reduced.

EASIER FOR CONTESTANTS

Second Offer Not as Good as First, but Sufficiently Liberal to Make It Worth While—Clubs of Eighteen.

So signally successful was the first special offer for an extra bonus for a little extra effort in the big subscription campaign being conducted for the Star, that the management of the contest has decided on another which will be inaugurated on Wednesday morning.

While the percentage of extra votes allowed will not be quite so large, true to the announcement at the time that another such an offer would not be given, the amount has been made smaller and this will give all contestams a better chance to avail themselves of the proposition.

The contest begins tomorrow and will continue for 17 days, closing on the 29th of October. This offer while not as good as the first one, which closed Saturday night, will enable all the contestants to secure a large number of votes entirely extra. The offer briefly is this: Send in to the Contest Manager $18 in subscriptions between now and the 29th of October, and you will not only receive the regular number of votes on each subscription, but will also receive 18,000 extra votes.

Contestants are not limited to just one of these clubs of $18, but may send in just as many new subscribers as they can possibly secure, and when the amount reaches $18, an extra bonus certificate will be issued for 18,000 votes. When the amount reaches $36, the second extra bonus vote for 18,000 will be issued, etc.

These subscriptions must all be new, in order to count on this offer, but they may be of any length and either on the daily or the weekly, which is by mail only outside the city. Contestants may send in these subscriptions one at a time if they desire, and an accurate record will be kept by the contest department, and as soon as the amount reaches $18, the 18,000 extra votes will be issued to that contestant.

Remember that this is positively the last extra vote offer of the contest, and all promises which contestants have for subscriptions should be gotten in before this offer is closed, for on the last week of the contest there will be no special offer, or no extra vote offer whatever put on as an inducement to secure subscribers.

Now is the time to begin on this offer, for the time will soon slip away, and those who start in at once will find that they will be the successful contestants at the close of the contest.

If there is anything that any contestant does not fully understand regarding this special offer, or regarding the contest, write the contest manager at once, and same will be fully explained. Phone 190.

Contestants should solicit subscriptions entirely upon the merits of the paper and should not make themselves disagreeable after a prospect. Remember, too, that only new subscribers count in this extra bonus offer, but that votes in the usual number are allowed on renewals when all arrearages are paid with a further payment in aavance, amounting to $2 and over. Many are under a false impression as to new subscribers. Discontinuances and renewals in some other name to the same address are not new subscribers and any attempt at evasion will not be countenanced. The contest is run "strictly on the square" and the Star has every reason to expect the same treatment both from its contestants and the public. It is very easy to judge whether a new subscriber is bona fide or discontinues the paper and starts it again for the evident purpose of evading the rules of the contest. It is hoped that the necessity for the cancellation of votes will not arise from this source.

Death of Mr. Blount.

Friends in this city will learn with regret of the death of Mr. Thomas Harvey Blount at his home in Washington, N. C., yesterday. Mr. Blount was married at the close of the war to Miss Mary Louise Nutt, who with two children survive him. They have many relatives and friends here, who will hear of the death with much sorrow and tender sympathy for the bereaved ones.

WHAT IS VINOL?

It Represents Twenty Years' Work of Two Eminent Chemists.

After twenty years' of study two eminent French chemists discovered a method by which the alkaloids or medical elements of the cod's liver might be separated from the useless oil or grease, retaining all the good of cod liver oil or dispensing with the bad, as the oil has no medicinal value. These medicinal elements blended with tonic iron and a mild medicinal wine—make Vinol.

Vinol is not a secret medicine, as its ingredients are printed on every bottle, and in all cases where the healing, strengthening influence of cod liver oil is needed, Vinol will give better results, for it contains all the curative medicinal properties of cod liver oil, but without the oil, and it is easily assimilated and acceptable to the weakest stomach.

For all run-down, weakened conditions, and to cure chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles, Vinol is unexcelled. We sell it always with the understanding that if it does not do all we claim for it, we will refund the money paid us for it. Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

BIG POLITICAL MEETING

Senator Overman and Attorney General Bickett to Speak Here Next Week—Engagement of Mr. Brooks Canceled.

Owing to the cancellation of the engagement of Hon. A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, who was scheduled to speak here Friday night, a request for his presence in Laurinburg on that date having been made, the Democratic campaign in this county will not be formally launched until Wednesday night, October 19th, when United States Senator L. S. Overman of Salisbury, and Attorney General Bickett will address the people of this city and county at an open air meeting at corner of Third and Market streets.

Chairman Marsden Bellamy, of the New Hanover Democratic Executive Committee, yesterday morning receiving a long distance telephone message from Judge Walter Neal at Laurinburg, to the effect that a big political rally had been arranged for that town Friday night of this week and asking if it would be possible to secure the presence of Hon. A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, who was scheduled to deliver an address in the Court House here at that time. Mr. Bellamy replied to the effect that whatever arrangements Judge Neal made with State Chairman Eller and Mr. Brooks would be satisfactory with him. Last night Mr. Bellamy received a telegram stating that the engagement of Mr. Brooks at Wilmington had been canceled and that he would speak in Laurinburg Friday night. Mr. Brooks may make an address here later in the campaign.

During the day Mr. Bellamy received a telegram from State Chairman Eller to the effect that Senator Overman and Attorney General Bickett would speak here on the night of October 19th. Mr. Bellamy has made arrangements to have the speaking take place at the corner of Third and Market streets and will have a platform erected there for the speakers, both of whom have been heard in Wilmington with much pleasure and will doubtless draw a large crowd next week.

ALL WRONG

The Mistake is Made by Many Wilmington Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

It is wrong to imagine relief is cure. Backache is kidney ache.

You must cure the kidneys.

A Wilmington resident tells you how.

A. M. Wilson, 402 S. Fifth St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am a strong endorser of Doan's Kidney Pills and shall always praise them. I believe Doan's Kidney Pills the best remedy to be had for kidney trouble. My back was very weak and lame and though I wore plasters and tried liniments I did not get relief. The kidney secretions were so frequent in passage that I had to get up several times at night and they also contained sediment. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I decided to try them and procured a box at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store. They cured me after other remedies had failed and it can be plainly seen why I am so willing to recommend them."

OAK RIDGE INSTITUTE.

News Notes, General, Personal and Otherwise at Live Institution.

Oak Ridge, N. C., Oct. 10.— Prof. E. F. Mayberry, a member of the institute faculty, arrived on the Ridge Thursday and received the glad hand. He was bought from the Danville baseball club by the Cleveland team, American League, during the Summer, and has been in Cleveland for a month. He made a good showing in all the games in which he has pitched.

The Scotch Singers, traveling under the auspices of the Radcliffe Entertainment Bureau, of Washington, D. C., gave a delightful entertainment here on Thursday night to the students and friends of the school. Evsry number on the programme was thoroughly enjoyed. The quartettes particularly were encored repeatedly. Miss Keating with her violin playing captured the boys. She is quite an artist. This is the first of four entertainments provided for the students gratis by the principals of the school. The next evening will be given in November.

Prof. E. P. Holt is feeling the baseball material these fine afternoons. So far about 75 have reported for trial. There is some good material here, and Prof. Holt thinks he will be able to put out a winning team for the season of '11. Among the pitchers Craven, of Mecklenburg, is making a good showing. Lewellyn, who made good in the season of '10, is back and is better than ever. Dunning, of Bertie, is showing up well, as a catcher. There are several heavy hitting out-fielders trying for the team.

The Institute band is rapidly improving. Capt. Whitaker took the boys to Stokesdale Saturday to play for Major Stedman, who spoke there that day.

Fifty or 75 of the students expect to go to the Pilot Mountain on Saturday, the 15th. This trip is a notable one in the annals of school life here, as the studehts have been making it their annual outing for years. The leaves will be their prettiest then, and the October skies will be clear. The view from the top of this mountain is wonderfully fine.

Prof. M. H. Holt, president of the Board of Directors of the North Carolina School for the Deaf at Morganton, has just returned from a meeting of the Executive Committee, held at the school last week. He reports conditions there as satisfactory, with an enrollment of about 250 pupils.

Miss Bessie Benbow of this place, left last Friday for Northampton, Mass., to enter as a Normal student the celebrated Clarke School for the Deaf, to prepare herself as a teacher of that class of unfortunates.

Oak Ridge Institute never did better work than it is doing now, or under brighter outlook. Movements are on foot to greatly enlarge the plant, and to increase the patronage, in obedience to the demands of the times. This scribe is not at liberty to state plans yet, but will do so later.

Prof. Whitaker made two speeches in Rockingham county last week, in response to the invitation of the county executive committee. They were enthusiastically received. In the Fifth District the only thing that is giving the people anything political to talk about, is the size of the Democratic majority.

WHITEVILLE NEWS NOTES.

Electric Lighting—Death in Georgia. The Highway.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, Oct. 10.—The electric lighting plant for Vineland is now nearly completed, and will soon be in operation. At present the wires will not extend further up town than Dr. Crowell's residence on Madison avenue, but an effort is being made to embrace the section of town around the court house. Many of the stores in Vineland will be lighted by electricity. Vineland is on quite a boom, several new stores having recently opened there.

Mr. John McKinnon, a brother of Mrs. R. H. Powell, and a former Whiteville citizen, who died in Milledgeville, Ga., last Friday, was brought to Whiteville Sunday and interred here. Mr. McKinnon was most pleasantly remembered and a large number of sympatnizing friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

Mr. Mack Fletcher, a son of Hon. T. J. Fletcher, one of the county commissioners, was carried to the James Walker Memorial hospital in Wilmington last week by Dr. H. B. Maxwell, to be operated on for appendicitis.

Mr. S. C. Hicks of the Bank of Dunn, arrived in Whiteville last evening on a short visit to friends here.

Mr. J. R. Williamson has been elected the Congressional Executive Committeeman from this county.

Mr. Meares has had as a general thing small crowds out to hear him and missed his appointment at Evergreen and Fair Bluff, while Mr. Tucker filled it at Hallsboro. Our people seem to be surfeited on politics this year.

The citizens of Whiteville will make preparations to give the Charlotte-Wilmington Highway pathfinders a fitting welcome as they pass through our town. It is a matter of regret that they cannot stop over a while with us. From information received from the country and towns along the line, they will receive one continuous ovation from the time they enter Columbus county until they leave. It is suggested that the pathfinders divide at Chadbourn and a portion go the Lumberton route and a part take the route via Fair Bluff and Rowland as both of these sections are competing for the prize. They can then see which is the most desirable route.

NORFOLK BRICK-LAYERS OUT.

Contractors Refused Demands and 200 Men go on Strike.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 10.—The bricklayers of Norfolk struck today because of refusal by contractors to meet their demands for an increase in the wage scale of $.50 a day with a half holiday on Saturday at full pay. The old scale was $5 per day without the Saturday half holiday. Two hundred men are affected. Both sides appear firm and the strike may be prolonged.

A. & M. COLLEGE.

News Notes of General Interest at State Agricultural College.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 10.—President D. H. Hill is to be one of the speakers next Wednesday at the celebration of the 116th anniversary of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Prof. W. C. Riddick, vice-president of the department of Civil Engineering, last week was chosen a member of the executive committee of the Southern Appalachian Goods Roads Association in session at Knoxville, Tenn.

This year the total enrollment of students has reached a higher mark than ever before in the history of the college for this time of the year, there being 475 students registered at present. From present indications the total enrollment for the year will reach 625 or 650. Last year the total enrollment for the yaer reached 570.

Captain J. M. Sherman of the track team last week issued his Fall call for candidates. Thirty-five men have reported for Fall training. Sometime before the Christmas holidays a cross country will be held. There is some very promising track material among the new men who reported.

Saturday night, October 1, the second dance of the Thalarian German Club was held in Pullen Hall and was greatly enjoyed by the large number present and dancing.

J. L. Dunn, All-South Atlantic tackle, 1909, is back in college, having returned the first part of the week, but too late to get in shape for the A. & M.-Georgetown game Saturday.

The showing made by the team in Saturday's game was very pleasing to Coach Green, the student body and the friends of the college in general. A. & M. showed clearly that the Red and White will again have championship possibilities. The team as a whole is exceptionally fast, but at the same time does not lack the weight necessary for strong defensive work and aggressive defensive work.

Prof. W. C. Riddick, chairman of the Faculty Athletic Committee, represented A. & M. at the Atletic conference of the colleges of North Carolina and Virginia in Danville, Va., October 6th. This meeting was for the purpose of drafting eligibility rules to govern athletics at all of the colleges in the two States, and will no doubt be a means of bringing together in athletic contests colleges long estranged from each other in athletics. A committee on rules, composed of the following men, Prof. Riddick, A. & M.: Prof. Patterson, U. N. C., and Coach Bocock, V. P. I., formulated rules as follows: (1) No one who has played in an organized professional league can participate in a college game. (2) To be eligible to play, a student has to be a resident of the college for five months. (3) Scholarship requirements will have to be met before a student can hold a position on an athletic team. Another conference is to be held shortly after the Christmas holidays in which the representatives of each college will make his report.

A DECLINE IN LIVERPOOL.

Sharp Reaction on Market Yesterday —Speculative Sentiment.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Oct. 10.—The sharp reaction in Liverpool was due and was rather more than expected bringing about a greater decline here than looked for, but the support given by the leading bulls rallied the market above last night, to close some seven to eight points lower. After such a decline abroad we look for an advance there of some six points tomorrow in order to be on the same basis as during the past few days. No cold wave is in sight, so that it seems likely we will not have a frost this week, while last season, we had a frost in the Atlantic. Tonight there is a tendency toward larger crop estimates, due to the growing weather since September 1st, but there is little change in the speculative sentiment which remains bullish. Spinners have been calling cotton freely during the past week. A meeting was held today at luncheon by the bankers now here from England to meet the American bankers over the bill of lading dispute. Nothing as yet has been arranged, as our banks are forbidden by law to do what the European bankers require. We still believe a settlement will be reached, but the trouble is interfering with the buyers and the movement of the crop.

HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

COAST LINE SCORES POINT.

Granted Writ of Error by Virginia Court of Appeals.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 10.—The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company scored a point today, when it was granted a writ of error by the Supreme Court of Appeals in a case involving $181.76 only. The lower court relied on what is known as the Carmack amendment to the Hepburn Act. This provides that a bill of lading is proof of certain responsibilities on the part of the road issuing it. The Virginia Supreme court has already held that the amendment in question might possibly deprive a concern of property without due process of law and the petition holds that he amendment is to that extent in contradiction of the Federal constitution.

GERMAN AMERICAN ALLIANCE

First Annual Meeting of Organization Held Last Night—Officers Elected—To Celebrate German Day October 27th.

With a large attendance of Germans and descendants of Germans, the first annual meeting of the German-American National Alliance was held last night in the handsome club rooms of the Howard Relief Club, corner Front and Orange streets. The organization was in session for nearly three hours, during which time, many matters of interest were discussed and officers for the ensuing year elected.

Mr. M. G. Tiencken, president of the organization, presided and Secretary J. G. L. Geischen was at his post. In calling the meeting to order President Tiencken made a very appropriate short address. After the reading of the minutes of the organization meeting, held at Wrightsville Beach, last Summer, and hearing reports from committees, the annual election of officers was entered into, resulting as follows:

President—M. G. Tiencken.
First vice president—W. F. Aberle.
Second vice president—H. T. Duls.
Third vice president—J. H. Niggel.
Secretary and treasurer—J. G. L. Gieschen.

The executive committee is to be appointed and will be announced later. The membership committee was re-appointed.

One of the most important actions was the decision to celebrate German Day on October 27th, with an oyster roast and appropriate exercises at Wrightsville Beach. The following were named as the committee to have charge of the arrangements: Messrs. A. O. Schuster, Edw. Wright, Otto Brown, Wm. Mahler and F. A. Bissinger.

Another matter of considerable importance was the decision to place a wreath of the organization at the unveiling of the monument to Gen von Steuben, at Washington, D. C., in December next. The executive committee was authorized to appoint delegates to attend the unveiling exercises.

MR. THOS. H. BLOUNT.

Venerable and Highly Esteemed Citizen of Washington, N. C., Passes.

(Special Star Telegraph.)

Washington, N. C., Oct. 10.—Mr. Thomas H. Blount, one of Washington's oldest and most prominent citizens, died at his home in this city yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock after a short illness. Deceased was in his 73rd year. He is survived by a heart-broken widow, two children, Mr. Henry T. Blount, and Mrs. T. H. Myers; two brothers, Mr. W. A. Blount and Major J. G. Blount; two sisters, Mrs. J. K. Hatton, of this city, and Mrs. B. Willard, of Saxapahaw, N. C.

Mr. Blount for a number of years was one of the board of county commissioners and had a large number of friends and relatives in Washington. The funeral was conducted at 3:30 P. M. this afternoon from St. Peter's Episcopal church, of which he was a member by Rev. Nathaniel Harding and the interment was in Oakdale cemetery.

AVIATOR JOHNSTONE HURT.

Fell With Biplane On Aviation Field In St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 10.—Ralph Johnstone fell with a biplane, he was operating at a height of 50 feet, on the aviation field this afternoon and was slightly bruised. The machine was wrecked.

Johnstone lost control while he was making a sharp turn. He was stunned by the fall. Before he was revived he said "I'm not hurt. The radiator saved my life."

The engine fell on the radiator, otherwise it would have pinioned the aviator.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 10.—Mrs. H. C. Hoggard, of Norfolk, has been appointed State sponsor for the meeting of the ground camp of Confederate Veterans in Norfolk next week. Mrs. Hoggard is the wife of a prominent business man of Norfolk, who was a private soldier in the war between the States.

RHEUMATISM

PAINFUL & DANGEROUS

Rheumatism is due to a diseased condition of the blood cells and corpuscles, brought about by an excess of uric acid in the circulation. It is not only a very painful disease but an extremely dangerous trouble. The briny, acrid state of the blood gradually forms a coating over the muscles, and by depositing a cement-like substance in the joints frequently terminates fatally, or leaves its victim a hopeless cripple. It is natural to "doctor" the spot that hurts, and it is quite right to use liniments, hot applications, etc., to get temporary relief from a painful joint or swollen tendon; but Rheumatism is not a skin disease, and such things, when depended on alone make one careless, and the disease gets a firmer hold on the blood. S. S. S. cures the disease because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation, and removes every particle of the irritating uric acid, builds up the blood, makes it rich and oily, and in this way prepares it for the proper nourishment of all joints, muscles, nerves and bones. If you have Rheumatism, get the uric acid out of the blood by taking S. S. S., a purely vegetable medicine, and enjoy freedom from its misery. you do not have to work close to the stove, which is usually far from the window. You can work where you wish, and be warm. You can work on dull winter days in the full light near the window, without being chilled to the bone.

The Perfection Oil Heater quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap, put in like a cork in a bottle, is attached by a chain. This heater has a cool handle and a damper top.

The Perfection Oil Heater has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged and can be unscrewed in an instant for rewicking. The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

Tuesday, October 11, 1910.

The blab-mouth says so many things that it so confuses some people they do not know whether they are edified or merely entertained.

We can congratulate Portugal upon self -government if she doesn't do it like we have allowed special interests to do it for us in this country.

A woman is blamed for the downfall of King Manuel of Portugal. Of course, every fellow from Adam down to Manuel has had to have somebody to put the blame on.

King Manuel, of Portugal, has called on a friendly King for help. However, it is quite likely that his brother King is too far back in the cyclone cellar to hear his call.

Teddy has fooled himself in believing there is something in "New Nationalism" and the fear is that he will fool some other folks with the blamed old thing.

Of course, everybody who is tired of waiting on the belated Republican promise of prosperity can pull up and and come on to Wilmington. They won't have to wait in Wilmington.

It is quite possible that Kink Emanuel, Portugal's dethroned monarch, can blame it on the hobble skirt. He certainly can deny any allegation to the effect that he gave his "Kingdom for a horse."

Probably, President Taft approves the worst kind of a hobble skirt for that lady who made him "move" because she wanted to tear down his Summer cottage so she could construct a Japanese Garden.

A Providence, R. I., undertaker complains that his "business is dead." Of course, the Providence booster club will slip up if it fails to advertise that hard times for the undertaker indicates a live town.

"New Nationalism" is the embodiment of paternalism, or else centralization, or both—whichever way you want to look at it. It probably doesn't make any difference which it means, as Congress has been practicing it for many years as old nationalism.

Judging from what the Jacksonville Times Union says of those who misrepresent Jacksonville, they are nearly as mean as anyone who vainly tries to pick flaws in Wilmington. Everybody should like and "talk Wilmington," or else be considered entirely out of order.

The best thing about Uncle Joe is that he lets everybody know where he stands whether they care to stand for him or not. For not dodging and double-dealing, Uncle Joe sets an illustrous example for other distinguished politicians who make so many tracks going and coming that nobody knows "where they are at."

Well, what do you think! Dr. Cook says he will yet prove that he reached the North Pole. In view of his declaration that he is not responsible for the Payne-Aldrich plank in the New York Republican platform, it is up to Col. Roosevelt to prove that he never attended the Saratoga convention or else confess his mistaken notion that he beat the "Old Guard" to to a frazzle.

The New York Supreme Court has decided that a man can change his name without legal or legislative sanction, as was generally believed to be necessary. Sometimes it is easy for men to have their names changed by the people without their consent. For instance, the name of Republican candidates will be Dennis after the 8th of November.

Roosevelt's idea of political life is that it is "new nationalism" and then some more. For a man who can beat the bushes and dodge the tariff, he is a slick proposition. You can't find a partridge nest if she sees you first and gets off in time to make a noise where the nest isn't. The Roosevelt noise may fool lots of people but its object is so plain that it should not cause anybody to be led off in the wrong direction.

Last week when the State Democratic Executive Committee had to nominate a candidate for State Auditor there were twelve aspirants for the nomination. Thoughtless and envious Republican "rags," will try to make it appear that Democrats are office hungry, but it only shows how many loyal North Carolinians there are who are willing to be elected so no Republican san stand a chance of being elected State Auditor.

THE GREAT SIDE-STEPPER.

In his Atlanta speech a few days ago, ex-President Roosevelt declared that he did not have his own way about the tariff platform of the New York Republican convention. How can he reconcile that plain statement with his boast that in his fight against the "Old Guard" he "beat 'em to a frazzle"? The public is bound to accept his Atlanta declaration as a confession that in the one great essential particular of the tariff the Old Guard cooked his goose.

The true analysis of Roosevelt's triumph at the New York convention yields the result that he won the inconsequential temporary chairmanship of the convention and got put out of business on the one great issue of reasonable tariff revision in the interest of the people. Every man, woman and child in America is affected by that issue, but comparatively few are even concerned in whether Roosevelt or Sherman won the temporary chairmanship of the Republican convention of one of the 46 States of this Union.

The confessed truth that Theodore Roosevelt really did not "beat 'em to a frazzle" cropped out in his speech in Atlanta on Saturday night. Colonel Roosevelt went out of his way to lug in politics when it came his time to deliver an address as a feature of the "Uncle Remus day" celebration. What he said is the second intimation the country has had that his alleged victory at the Saratoga convention did not amount to a row of pins. After having boasted to the country that he "beat 'em to a frazzle," we conceive that it must have been somewhat humiliating to the Rough Rider to make a statement which causes his part in the Saratoga convention to dwindle in significance. However, let us quote here from that Associated Press dispatch from Atlanta under date of Saturday night:

"Theodore Roosevelt tonight disclaimed any responsibility for the tariff plank in the New York State Republican platform. In doing so he replied to criticisms which have been directed against him, particularly by some of the so-called "Insurgent" Republicans in the West, to the effect that he talked one kind of politics in the West and another kind in the East. This criticism was based largely on the fact that while he did not endorse the Payne tariff law in any of his Western speeches, the tariff plank of the New York Republican platform commended the bill. Colonel Roosevelt made it clear in his speech tonight that he had not endorsed the Payne law, and that he did not agree with the New York tariff plank. He said that he would stand on his speech as temporary chairman of the New York Republican convention, in which he commended parts of the Payne law, but did not endorse it as a whole. Colonel Roosevelt's speech was delivered at the Uncle Remus Day celebration here. He began his address with an appreciation of the life and works of Joel Chandler Harris, author of the Uncle Remus tales. Then he turned to his recently enunciated doctrine of the new nationalism."

Roosevelt may as well have told us that the Old Guard beat him to a frazzle upon the fundamental questions before the convention. The convention made him temporary chairman, permitted him to incorporate in the platform some commonplace declarations, common to all men, as to honesty and integrity in public life, and, in a way, endorsed a direct primary for the nomination of party candidates, a bill covering which was defeated by the Republican Legislature at its last session in Albany. The political decency plank is a perfunctory sentiment which no political party dare not entertain, and the mere endorsement of the direct nomination method does not by any means guarantee that a Republican General Assembly in New York will enact any satisfactory bill of that kind. The Old Guard which whipped him out on the tariff, has a chance during the coming election to beat the primary question and should a Republican General Assembly be elected they will have another opportunity to cook up such a primary bill as they want and not what the Colonel may like to have.

Colonel Roosevelt's Atlanta declaration indicates that he was wincing from the hooks which the Western insurgents have thrown into him about talking "one kind of politics in the West and another kind in the East." He explained to us that he was not responsible for the tariff plank in the New York State Republican platform, but why on earth did he neglect the opportunity to declare to the voters of the Republic just exactly where he does stand on the tariff? It seems that insurgents do not know, for he says they misrepresent him on that question, but if they did know exactly what his position is, the insurgents as well as the rest of the country would be positive of it and could not possibly place him in a false attitude concerning that momentous question. Alas! the Colonel in that Atlanta speech neglected a splendid opportunity to clearly state his position so it would be impossible to misrepresent him. However, he side-stepped and "then we turned to his recently enunciated doctrine of the new nationalism."

Where the thunder does Roosevelt stand on the tariff? Having been goaded by Senator Cummins, of Iowa, who voiced the protest of Western insurgents against the Payne-Aldrich plank in the Saratoga platform, Colonel Roosevelt told a Brooklyn audience just before he started South that if he had been in complete control of the convention, "I should have written the tariff plank differently." Again he failed to state how "differently" he would have written that plank. The fact is, nobody knows how he would have written it, but there is nothing on record to show that he wielded his big stick against that plank while it was being put in the platform by a convention over which he was the temporary chairman and boastful boss. He has made it appear, and the public is under the impression, that he was in absolute control of that convention. He named the platform committee himself and the New York World declares such action was "in violation of all precedents." As temporary chairman of the convention, he also removed four members of the committee and substituted delegates personally acceptable to himself. That shows that he had control of the convention and could have named a platform committee which would report a platform in accordance with his views. He even carried to the convention a rough draft of the platform prepared before he left Sagamore Hill, and the fact is plain, as pointed out by an editorial in the World, that "the man that boasted of 'we beat 'em to a frazzle' could have framed and did frame any the kind of tariff plank he wanted."

If Roosevelt has any real convictions about the tariff he has taken pains to conceal them from the public. He ignores a vitally important question which has the whole country set by the ears and yet he switches off on to "new nationalism," preaches political morality, declares that he will "cinch the crooks," and 'bring the corporations to time." Yet if he made any thundering speech against putting the Payne-Aldrich tariff plank in the New York platform we have not seen any record of it. Nevertheless, while he preaches political morality he knows that the tariff is the one great cause of political corruption and National scandal in this country. The tariff is at the bottom of the subscription of huge funds to corrupt the politics of this country and buy up the people's elections, and yet he can preach about civic integrity and political purity without attacking the one great root of the evil. We regret that we absolutely fail to see anything in what Roosevelt says or does that will disabuse our mind of the impression that he is a humbug or is given over to an irresponsibility that is remarkably strange.

NORTH CAROLINA PROSPERITY.

Prosperity in North Carolina is indicated in the big gain in the business of the State banks during the past fiscal year, the gain over the previous year's business having been $7,730,964.25. According to authority of the North Carolina Corporation Commission at Raleigh on Saturday a summary and comparative table of the two years' business of the State banks shows that the total resources of this class of banks for the fiscal year ended Sept. 1st, 1910, were $58,352,185.36, compared with resources of $50,944,061.69, for a like period in 1909.

From the Corporation Commission's statement it is gathered that the increase in loans and discounts during the fiscal year just ended have been $6,409,810.91, in State bonds $188,050.00 in banking houses and fixtures $118,799.06; in demand loans $374,680.24. The other items in the increase carry the total up to $7,730,964.25. The deposits subject to check show an increase of $1,477,178.65, having been $21,351,258.94 in 1909 and $22,828,437.59 in 1910. The savings deposits have been increased $1,799,576.55, these amounting to $4,670,992.28 in 1909 and to $6,470,568.83 in 1910. The time certificates of deposit show an increase of $1,602,579.02 over 1909, these deposits in 1909 having been $5,082,292.79, increasing in 1910 to $6,684,871.81. In 1909 the capital stock paid in was $7,759,803.34, while in 1910 it had grown to $8,767,990.44, an increase of $1,008,187.10, the surplus fund growing from $1,634,859.18 in 1909 to $1,940,761.29, an increase of $305,892.11, while the individual profits had grown from $1,713,701.86 in 1909 to $1,940,761.29 in 1910, an increase of $173,191.30.

The statement given out by the Corporation Commission covers only the banking institutions doing business under State charters, and, of course, does not include the National banks which are much larger institutions than the State banks. When it is considered that the State banks only are concerned, the report showing their prosperity is all the more gratifying because these banke are generally located in the rural sections of the State where the deposits largely belong to farmers.

While the State banks make a showing of substantial prosperity in the State, there has been tremendous progress among the National banks from one end of the State to the other. North Carolina prosperity is of a general kind and is not confined to any one portion of the State.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Good roads, bigger factories and more of them, better farming methods, better schools, more churches, more water power development, more honest and frugal settlers—these are some of the ends sought after by the Southern Commercial Congress.—Charlotte News.

In his letter to ex-Governor Aycock Republican State Chairman Morehead talks about what the Republican party is and isn't going to do. Gov. Aycock may well reply by asking whether Mr. Morehead or Mr. Butler is the man to speak for the Republican party.—Greensboro Telegram.

There are some patriots who want office. This class are talking about a larger House of Representatives. About 460 Congressmen is their estimate of what should be. In Jackson's time the number was 65. There are 391 now. The Sentinel favors one Congressman for every 300,000 people.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

Even the Shelby Aurora seems to differ with Mr. Butler's interpretation of that magic "local self-government" plank. The latter appears to construe the plank to mean a promise of booze, while the former insists that it holds no such hope. When the leaders themselves are in doubt about the proper interpretation, what is the public to expect?—Charlotte News.

The Lumberton Robesonian thinks the election of the Democratic executive committee of a member of the sixth district Congressional committee is a distinct departure and will occasion much surprise. "Usually," says the Robesonian, "the executive committee is chosen by the Congressional convention, and as the State executive committee decided that neither of the conventions held at Wrightsville last July was regular it was thought that the old executive committee would hold over. Chairman Eller's decision that each county executive committee should elect a member of the Congressional committee, leaving the chairmanship vacant until the committee elected according to this special dispensation shall meet and elect a new chairman." Politically, things have been at cross purposes, generally, in the sixth, this year and it is to be hoped that the new Congressional committee will be constituted without a wrangle.—Charlotte Chronicle.

J. H. Rehder & Co.

The Firm That Pays Your Car Fare.

TWO PROPOSITIONS HEARD

One Banking Institution Offers to Lend Money on Sewerage Bonds While Another Would Buy Them—Action Postponed.

The Board of Aldermen in session yesterday afternoon heard a proposition from the Wilmington Savings & Trust Co. to lend the city $100,000, secured by $100,000 of the 4 1-2 per cent. bonds and an offer from the American National Bank to purchase outright the bonds at par with the provision that the city remove its daily checking account to this institution, after which the Board went into executive session in which it was decided best to postpone action for a few days in order to give the other financial institutions of the city an opportunity to submit offers.

The meeting was held at 3 o'clock with Mayor MacRae presiding and all members in attendance except Alderman Rehder. The board took up immediately the consideration of the offers with reference to the water and sewerage bonds. Alderman Stone said that two propositions had been received, one from the Wilmington Savings & Trust Company and the other from the American National Bank. The offer of the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company is to lend the city $100,000 on its notes, secured by $100,000 of the 4 1-2 per cent. bonds, the notes to bear the interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum and to run 90 days from date of issue with privilege of renewal for nine months. Before the expiration of the time it is thought that the bonds could be sold at a considerable premium, as the prospects for betterment of the condition of the municipal bond market within the next 12 months seems splendid. The bank would expect the money to be deposited with it and would pay the usual rate of interest. It is estimated that a bulk of the money would be in the bank for at least six months.

This is the only proposition that had been made to the finance committee until noon yesterday and up to that hour the members of the committee were unanimous in their decision to recommend to the Aldermen that the offer be accepted. However, shortly after noon they received a proposition from the American National Bank to purchase the bonds at par. The proposition contained two provisions, first that the money be put on deposit with the American to be checked out as needed; second, that the city transfer its daily checking account to this bank. The last provision is all that prevented the Aldermen from accepting the proposition yesterday afternoon. They did not feel that they had any right to say to the City Clerk and Treasurer with which bank he should do his business because he furnishes his own bond and is personally responsible for the money he handles. The Aldermen who expressed themselves said that otherwise the proposition of the American "looked good to them."

City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler, clerk of the board, stated that he was always willing and ready to do anything the Aldermen thought to be for the best interests of the city; that he would gladly agree to deposit the $100,000 for the sale of the $100,000 bonds or the amount of the loan thereon, but that he could not agree to change his daily checking account to another institution.

Upon motion of Alderman Stone the board then went into executive session, and the matter was more thoroughly discussed. It seemed to be the concensus of opinion that other banking houses of the city should be given an opportunity to make the city a proposition. Messrs. Hall and Stone of the Finance Committee stated that the proposition of the American National Bank was received such a short time before the meeting that they were not prepared to pass finally upon the matter at that time. Upon motion of Alderman West, seconded by Alderman Yopp, the matter was again referred to the finance committee with the request that they invite other banks to submit propositions. It is expected that another meeting will be held at an early date at which some definite action will be taken.

BIG SWEDISH TRAMP HERE.

Steamer Fridland On Her Maiden Voyage—Comes for Cotton.

On her maiden trip across from Dotenburg, Sweden, the big new Swedish steamer Fridland, Capt. Svensson, one of the largest to ever visit this port, arrived here yesterday from Philadelphia to receive a cargo of cotton from Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son for foreign export.

The Fridland discharged her first cargo which was of iron ore at Philadelphia and has a carrying capacity of 9,000 tons. The steamer has a tonnage of 4,040 tons American register and is 3,441 tons English register. Besides being probably the largest steamer to ever come to Wilmington, she has a length of 415 feet and doubtless holds the record in this particular. The steamer was built at an English shipyard and belongs to the Brastram line, which owns some 30 vessels.

She is modern in every particular and made her first voyage across from the Swedish port in 19 days. Capt. Svensson stated yesterday that she can make eleven and a half knots an hour loaded and he considers his first trip across a very good one. The vessel was built at a cost of about 50,000 pounds sterling. She was docked at the cotton compress yesterday and attracted much interest from people along the water front.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Regular Monthly Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon—Rural Schools Have Large Attendance—Two Changes Made.

The regular monthly meeting of the County Board of Education was held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the office of the superintendent at the Court House, with Chairman J. O. Carr presiding and Messrs W. H. Sprunt and D. J. Fergus, members of the board; Prof. Washington Catlett, the superintendent, and County Treasurer H. McL. Green in attendance.

After the books of the county treasurer were audited, and found to be correct, the board proceeded to the consideration of routine matters. The superintendent reported the opening of all the rural schools with a large enrollment and splendid attendance. He said that the enrollment would compare favorably with last year. He regretted to report that Miss Lou Boone, of Rose Hill, teacher at Middle Sound, became ill of fever a few days ago and had to return to her home. The committee arranged for a substitute to take charge of the school yesterday morning. Prof. Catlett also reported that the teacher selected for the school on the Castle Haynes road, gave up her school, and that Miss Frances Sergeant, of Roxboro, was secured in her stead. Miss Sergeant has already taken charge of the school. He reported progress on the deep well, which is being sunk at Masonboro school, by Mr. Roberts, expert well man.

The matter of changing the location of the Greenville school house was again discussed, after which it was ordered that the Board of Education build a new school house at Greenville, District No. 14, and that Mr. Fergus and Professor Catlett constitute a committee to select the site and secure drawing for the building and report at a subsequent meeting of the board.

WILL REPAIR PEST HOUSE.

Another Case of Smallpox Discovered Yesterday Morning.

Owing to the fact that it is very probable that there will be a number of cases of smallpox in Wilmington during the Fall and Winter months, it has been deemed advisable to put the house in first-class condition for the reception of any patients suffering of this disease. At the suggestion of Dr. Joseph Akerman, city superintendent of health, the matter was brought to the attention of the Board of Alderman, in special session yesterday afternoon, by Alderman Ellis, chairman of the Sanitary Committee. The board did not make an appropriation for the necessary repairs and improvements at the pest house, but it was the sense of the board that the work be done without delay and that the cost be charged to the special $5,000 health appropriation made some time ago. It will be recalled that the Board of Audit and Finance, at a meeting early in September, ordered that no bills contracted after September 15th be paid out of the special appropriation. The Board of Aldermen, on the other hand, holds that the appropriation has been made, and that they have a right to draw on the fund until it has been exhausted. Chairman Ellis will proceed with the work of making the necessary repairs at the pest house and Alderman Willard, chairman of the special health committee, will "O. K." the bills for the same.

Another case of smallpox was discovered yesterday morning, the patient being Betsy Holden, colored, at 106 Dawson street, who has been quarantined at her home.

MR. J. W. RUARK MAYOR.

Former Southport Young Man Elected Chief Executive of Sanford.

Many friends in Wilmington, and elsewhere throughout this section of the State, will be interested to know that at a recent meeting of the Board of Aldermen, of that town Mr. J. W. Ruark was elected mayor of Sanford, N. C., succeeding Mr. T. A. Chisholm, who has resigned to become superintendent of a gold mine in Arizona. Mr. Ruark is a brother of Robert Ruark Esq., of the Wilmington bar and a son of Mr. J. B. Ruark, of Southport. Although only 24 years of age, he has practiced his profession at the Sanford bar the past two years and his election to the position of chief executive of his town, a hustling municipality of 4,000 or 5,000 people, is a decided compliment to him, both as an attorney and as a citizen.

BIG VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF

Superior Court Jury Awards Eddie M. Bryan Damages in the Sum of $7,566 Against Hilton Lumber Co.—For $25,000.

After deliberating for five hours the Superior Court jury, which had in hearing the case of Eddie M. The trial of this case was taken up Friday morning and was hotly contested on both sides. The plaintiff was represented by Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., and Hon. John D. Bellamy, while appearing for the defendant company were ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Thos. W. Davis, Esq. The taking of testimony was concluded Saturday and opening argument of counsel made before adjournment for the day. When court reconvened yesterday morning argument of counsel was concluded and the case was given to the jury at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Five hours later the verdict was brought in as above stated.

The case of Eliza Herring against Mary Russell, et al., was continued and set for trial as the seventh at the December term. The case of Ralph Kennedy Market Co., against Ralph Kennedy was set for trial as the eighth at the December term. In the case of Seaboard Air Line against the city of Wilmington, et al., the defendant is allowed time to file amended answer. A judgment for non-suit was signed in the case of B. F. Hartsfield against the Atlantic Coast Line, and also in the case of Martha Spicer against Joe Scarborough. Order for new parties was the entry in the case of Agnes B. Biddell against Mary A. Martindale.

In the matter of the will of Zillah Fowler will be taken up this morning. Appearing for the plaintiff are W. P. M. Turner, Esq., J. D. Bellamy & Son and Walser & Walser, the latter firm of Lexington, while ex-Judge E. K. Bryan represents the defendant. When this matter has been disposed of it is expected that the case of Mary E. Irving, et al., against Pembroke Jones, et al., will be taken up, and if so, will consume the remainder of the term.

At yesterday morning's session of court Joseph James Loughlin, Esq., was presented to the court by Iredell Meares, Esq., and duly admitted to the practice of law in the State courts. Mr. Loughlin is well known and popular and holds a responsible position in the postoffice in this city. He was recently granted license to practice law by the Supreme Court.

Later he admitted that he had been there and also that he took about $20 from a farmer living near Sylvester, because the farmer would not pay him for picking cotton. The officer stated that the lad was charged with the theft of about $60.

Elected Member of Democratic Congressional Committee for District.

A special meeting of the New Hanover county Democratic Executive Committee was held in the Court house at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon with Chairman Marsden Bellamy presiding and the following committeemen in attendance: Messrs. J. W. Gafford, the secretary; Melvin Horne, J. H. Johnston, Gerritt Walker, Fred T. Skipper, Thos. W. Davis. The principal matter before the meeting was the election of a member of the Democratic Congressional Executive Committee to represent this county, in accordance with the suggestion of State Chairman Eller that each county in the district name its own representative on the committee, it having been held that neither of the two Wrightsville conventions was regular and therefore neither set of committeemen named at that time was regular. Mr. Wm. E. Springer, who was the choice of the Clark convention and who was formerly a member of the committee, was unanimously elected as the New Hanover member of the committee to succeed himself in office. Matters generally pertaining to the campaign were discussed after the committeeman had been named.

Theatrical

"In Panama," a musical production with its merry girls and tuneful songs, was the attraction at the Academy of Music last night, and judging from the storm of applause from the large audience the show, upon the whole, gave entire satisfaction. There were some really good voices in the company; several songs made a hit with the audience and there was some good dancing. The Klein brothers, the comedians, were a whole show within themselves. They took the leading parts in the production and their work was done in a way to leave nothing to be desired. Among the songs which made a hit with the audience were: "In Panama," by Mr. Lloyd Peddrick; "Way Down in Colon Town," Klein Bros. and Sibyl Brennan; "My Cigarette," Miss Dunn; "Where the White Light Shines," Chad Heubner; "I Could Learn to Love You When You Smile, Smile, Smile," Klein Bros. and Misses Martineau and Pendleton. The scenery was fine and the costumes very pretty.

Funeral of Mr. Littleton.

The funeral of the late Mr. E. J. Littleton was held Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the late residence, No. 312 Queen street, conducted by Rev. Mr. Simpkins, a Primitive Baptist minister of Raleigh. There were present a large number of friends and relatives. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery. The pallbearers were: Messrs. J. S. Barnes, John McEntee, H. L. Horne, J. B. Casteen, J. O. Brown and J. E. G. Brown.

At the Crystal Palace.

The Crystal Palace is offering an exceptionally good bill this week, and the people showed their appreciation of the efforts of Manager Frank Peiffer in his endeavor to give them clean, wholesome vaudeville by their liberal patronage yesterday afternoon and last night. There was an unusually large crowd for the afternoon performances and the night performances were largely attended as usual. The headliner this week is Billy Baird, the black face comedian. The Mercel Sisters are splendid and won much applause, while the Musical Valpo won a storm applause at each performance. The motion pictures are also good this week.

At the Bijou Today.

Three interesting pictures will be shown as the bill at the Bijou today. "From the Artics to the Tropics," a scenic production; "Bumptious as a Fireman," a comedy, and "Mrs. Barrington's House Party," a society drama in which an elopement, a secret marriage and an obdurate father are all reconciled and come to a happy ending.

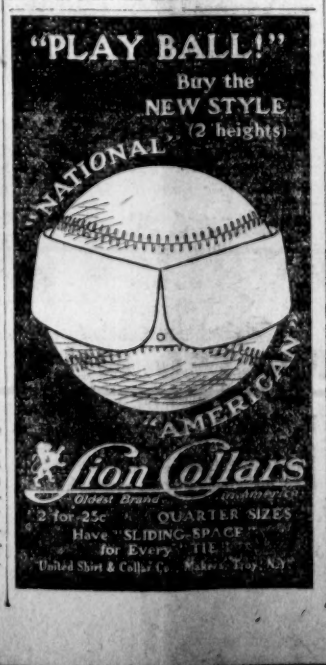
BOLL WEEVIL DOES DAMAGE.

Greatest Destruction of Cotton Reported From Louisiana.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The greatest damage done to the cotton crop by the boll weevil this season was in the district of Madison Parish, La., south of Baton Rouge, according to what Dr. L. O. Howard, chief of ne bureau of entomology of the Department of Agriculture, had to say today. He had just returned after an investigation of the boll weevil situation.

"There are, all told, about 40 enemies of the boll weevil," said Dr. Howard.

"The government has introduced six of these parasites to Louisiana and other States, and we intend to turn loose at least six more."



MASONIC TEMPLE LEASE.

Messrs. J. M. Solky & Co., Will Remain in Present Quarters.

Mr. J. M. Solky, of the well known clothing and gents' furnishing firm of J. M. Solky & Co., was rather surprised to learn from an editorial resume of business expansion in Sunday's Star that Messrs. Kress & Co., had leased the stores now occupied by his firm—a statement which Mr. Solky says is entirely erroneous as he has a lease on his present stores for three more years and assurances from the secretary of the Masonic Temple Corporation that when his present lease expires, he will have the refusal of the property again, if the same is desired. Mr. Solky says there is absolutely no truth in the statement that he has subleased any part of his present stores or that he contemplates taking any such step.

Mr. Solky is having the building next north of the Masonic Temple, which he recently purchased, handsomely fitted up into a moving picture theatre and this will be one of the finest in the South, but this will have absolutely nothing to do with Mr. Solky's established business in clothing and furnishings. The Star very gladly makes the correction in deference to Mr. Solky, who was naturally provoked to have the impression go abroad that he would shortly change locations.

Reputed to be 110 Years Old.

Richard Gillespie, colored, reputed to have reached the age of 110 years, died Saturday at the hospital as the result of a gangrenous infection for which one of his legs was amputated with the hope of saving his life, but without avail. He had lived in the northern part of the city for the past 13 or 14 years but came originally from near Magnolia in Duplin county. He leaves one son, who is thought to be in Norfolk and efforts have been made to locate him.

DECLINE IN COTTON MARKET

Close Was Six to Ten Points Lower Yesterday—Trading Was Nervous and Unsettled—New Records Were Reached.

New York, Oct. 10.—The cotton market was very nervous and unsettled during the day's trading. An early decline was followed by an advance which carried October and May contracts to new high records for the season, but later prices easer off following the suspension of a small local public and while the close was steady with October three points higher and November unchanged, later deliveries were six to ten points net lower.

The opening was steady at an advance of one point in November, but generally five to eleven points lower in response to disapointing cables. There was a good demand at the start and prices rallied slightly during the first few minutes as the easier cables appeared to be about the only bearish factors in the early news, but the reactionary sentiment which was so prominent in the market after the opening advance on Saturday seemed to be again very much in evidence and offerings became very heavy on the rally. Trade interests were big buyers on a scale down, and after having shown a net loss of about 13 to 20 points the market turned firmer again toward midday on covering by early sellers or re-buying by some of the old bulls owing to continued bullish reports from interior Southern spot markets and the readiness with which the market had absorbed the early offerings. October was relatively firm on the advance, selling up to 14.58 or 15 points net higher, and May also made a new high record, selling at 14.97 or four points above Saturday's closing figures, but just as the bulls seemed to have the situation well in hand, sentiment was unsettled by the announcement of the suspension of a small local house and the market later in the day eased off from the best under renewed realizing. The failure reported was accomplished by a statement that the firm involved had a net short interest in the market at the close of business last Saturday of only 4,500 bales and beyond its sentimental effect the affair appears to have little influence on trading. Southern spot markets officially reported early were 1-8 lower to 1-16 C. higher. The weather over Sunday was considered generally favorable aside from the cold rains in portions of the Southwest.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 72,633 bales against 62,187 last week, and 69,197 last year. For the week 375,000 bales against 347,749 last week and 440,508 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 7,180 bales against 8,694 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 14.65; middling gulf 14.90. Sales 1,500 bales.

Futures opened and closed steady.

MONEY OUTLOOK WAS FEATURE

Stock Market Influenced by Consideration of Banking Position—Crop Report on Corn and Wheat a Factor.

New York, Oct. 10.—The apathetic stock market of today was influenced by consideration of the banking position and the money outlook. The Saturday bank statement was regarded as enforcing the necessity of great caution in the extension of speculative credits. The small addition to the actual surplus was secured only by the scaling down of deposit liabilities through the loan contradiction, and the clearing house loan item was changed only by the shifting of loans to the other banks and trust companies, thus saving the money market any disturbance.

The outflow of cash, however, continues on a liberal scale and is likely to do so for the remainder of the month at least.

The foreign exchange market in New York was affected today by some enlarged offerings of cotton bills. These are being pressed forward in anticipation of the expiration of the period set by the foreign bankers for the new requirement of guarantee by drawers of exchange of cotton bills of lading, which the American bankers have refused to accede to.

The forenoon lethargy was ascribed especially to the desire to see the report of unfilled orders of the United States Steel Corporation for September 30th and the government report on grain conditions. Prices rose in response to the United States Steel. The decrease 359,022 tons in the amount of unfilled orders during September was favorable interpreted in the light of the August decrease of 433,803 tons.

The decrease for the quarter, also of 1,099,688 tons, compared with a falling off of 1,144,710 tons during the preceeding quarter. Estimates of new business being entered at the rate of 45 per cent. of the corporation capacity with mill operations running at 71 per cent. of capacity point to a continuin gshrinkage in the volume of unfilled orders.

Satisfaction with the government crop report was less mixed. The indicated corn crop as of October 1st had clearly passed the coveted three billion bushel mark, with favorable conditions since to swell the final yield. The wheat crop estimate also has been swelled to within less than ten million bushels of the 700,000,000 stage. So bountiful a harvest of the principal grains makes an addition to the treasury stock to make up vast deficiencies.

Prices closed at net gains under the influence of the crop report. Bonds were steady. Total sales par value $1,657,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 198,300 chares.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

"Furthermore, don't forget that the policy of conservation of the forests is of vital concern to the future of your people. "Timber should be handled like any other crop."

Speaking of new nationalism, Colonel Roosevelt said that it simply means the efficient application of old moralities to new conditions.

"New conditions have arisen and the kind of legislation that was employed, sufficient to meet the needs of a 130 years ago, when our constitution was formed and our people gained their national existence, is no longer adequate. He continued:

"The spirit of justice, the spirit of common sense, the spirit of insistence on right and high performance of duty, that spirit must keep as our forefathers kept it. But we need the new implements, the new tools of the trade of the citizenship, just as the soldier needs the new tactics and the new weapons that modern conditions have rendered necessary."

does not mean attacking men of wealth.

"What we are striving to do is to secure equal rights; that is, to eliminate special privileges, to try to start all men in the race of life on a reasonable equality."

Colonel Roosevelt took luncheon with Lieutenant John Greenway, of Hot Springs, Ark., an old Rough Rider friend. He spent the remainder of the time, until his train left at 5:30 o'clock for St. Louis, in a ride over the mountain drives near Hot Springs.

Seeking Presidency.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 10.—"By George, if I thought I could carry a single Southern State, I would willingly run for the Presidency."

Col. Roosevelt made this statement in Atlanta Saturday, it was learned today, in the presence of Mayor Maddox and other members of the reception committee which escorted him through Atlanta's crowded streets.

The procession moved along the streets, the colonel bowing his acknowledgements to the thousands on either side. Mayor Maddox told Mr. Roosevelt that he had lived in Atlanta all his life and the crowd was the largest he had ever seen massed on the streets on any occasion.

"You see, Col. Roosevelt," added Col. Paxon, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the reception committee, "what the people of Atlanta would do for you if you gave them a chance."

With manifest enthusiasm the ex-President then made the remark quoted above.

"I regard it as unfortunate," said Mr. Paxon tonight, "that the matter reached the newspapers, as Col. Roosevelt was the guest of the city and I considered his statement, made in his usual enthusiastic manner, as confidential."

BIG FIRE AT WILSON.

Woodward Prizery and Eight Small Dwellings Burned.—Loss $30,000.

Wilson, N. C., Oct. 10.—Fire early this morning destroyed the E. Woodward prizery, a large three-story frame structure and eight small dwellings, doing damage to the extent of about $30,000 and rendering 50 people homeless. Several other dwellings and the Green prizery and Woodward warehouses were damaged, also many bales of cotton on the Norfolk & Southern platform. Excellent work of firemen prevented a large conflagration. Only about $3.000 worth of tobacco burned.

The fire was discovered at 2:30 o'clock and the large three-story prizery was enveloped in flames when the firemen arrived. The blaze is supposed to have started from a cigar or cigarette stump thrown by some young negroes gambling in the warehouse Sunday afternoon. The dwellings belonged to S. H. Vick and Smith Bennett and were only partially insured. The residence of Mrs. T. D. Knight was badly damaged. The Green Prizery is owned by Smith & Gilchrist, of Wilmington, and was only slightly damaged. The Western Union telegraph company had 14 of it's 16 wires entering the city burned in two by the fire.

If you see anybody strange on the streets it's one of your lady friends wearing one of those new fall hats.

"LAID DOWN" TO LAJOIE.

Sport Writers Bring Charge Against the St. Louis Team.

St. Louis, Oct. 10.—Sport writers here charge that the local team of the American League yesterday allowed LaJoie, of the Cleveland team, to obtain hits. The object of this, it is charged, was to enable him to score more hits during the season than were credited to Cobb, of Detroit. The first time he hit a long liner to centerfield that netted him a three-base hit. Six other times he bunted down the third base line and either beat Third Baseman Corriden's throw to first or else Corriden did not throw. Another time LaJoie bunted to Corriden, who fielded it, but tossed wide to first. LaJoie was credited with a sacrifice hit.

It was necessary for LaJoie to obtain eight hits in order to pass Cobb. He went to the bat four times in each game and obtained as many hits.

LaJoie and other players say there was no trickery whatever, merely cleverness and misjudgment combined.

Malloy and Nelson were the St. Louis pitchers yesterday. In the only other game that Mallory pitched against Cleveland LaJoie got one hit in four times at bat. Nelson never pitched to LaJoie before.

President Hedges, of the local team refused to discuss the team's playing.

"LaJoie out-guessed us," said Manager O'Connor. "We figured he did not have the nerve to bunt every time. He beat us at our own game. I will not send any of my players in to play up close to LaJoie when he tries to bunt."

In explaining his playing, LaJoie, in a telegram sent to a St. Louis newspaper today from Cincinnati, said:

"After I made my first hit, a clean drive to center for three bases, the St. Louis men played deep, expecting me to pound the ball out every time. I fooled them right along. The pitchers did their best to deceive me, I am certain."

Corriden and Pitchers Malloy and Nelson could not be found today.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 10.—Frank J. Navin, president of the Detroit American League Baseball Club, declared today that the hitting of LaJoie in St. Louis looked suspicious.

"It looked like a raw deal," he said, "but I don't know whether or not the league will take action. The league can throw out the games for justifiable reasons.

"I think when the averages are given out it will be found that Cobb is the leader. At least I hope so."

President Navin also stated that the league will probably take action toward the elimination of prizes and bonuses for players.

"These prizes," declared Navin, "only serve to create dissension on a team."

Cincinnati, Oct. 10.—"I have nothing whatever to say," was the way Napoleon LaJoie answered a request for an interview tonight regarding the manner in which he made eight hits at St. Louis yesterday. Before he was through, however, the unofficial leader of the American League batters, said that he not only made eight hits in an absolutely genuine manner, but that he really deserved nine hits, [illegible] this last state.

Information was conveyed to LaJoie during the interview that Frank Navin, president of the Detroit team, had said that LaJoie's feat at St. Louis yesterday looked suspicious.

"So it looked suspicious to Navin, did it?" said LaJoie. "Well, he knows what he can do. He can take it before the league if he wants to. At that time I will certainly have my say. Until that time I can only say that I not only got eight hits yesterday in a regular manner, but that I should have been credited with nine."

August Herrmann, chairman of the National Baseball Commission in discussing the LaJoie incident tonight, declared that "No more prizes, or bonuses will be permitted under the rules of the National Commission. We shall be very careful to eliminate anything of the kind in the future."

Chicago, Oct. 10.—President B. B. Johnson, of the American League, today announced that no more prizes would be offered or permitted while he continued at the head of that baseball organization. President Johnson said that he had taken this position as a result of the LaJoie incident. He also said that he was making an investigation of the allegations made by St. Louis sporting writers.

"Even if the assertions prove unfounded," said President Johnson, "the merest suspicion of crookedness works irreparable injury to the game, and, from now on, no more individual contests for prizes will be allowed."

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 10.—One of the new 12-inch guns for the battleship Georgia, to replace the one broken during the target practice has arrived at the navy yard here from the naval gun factor at Washington, D. C., and is being installed. A second gun of the same type is expected to arrive from the Baston, Mass., navy yard within the next few days and will be installed in the same turret.

HEAVY DEATH TOLL IN FOREST FIRE

to the destitute.

Mayor Berg, of International Falls, has appointed a relief committee to arrange for the care of nearly 1,000 refugees who have reached that town.

The bridge which went down at Winter river and carried a Canadian Northern freight train with it, spilled wheat across the river bed and completely dammed the river. The refugees in the caboose had a narrow escape.

Along the Canadian Northern track on the river side were great piles of ties, which were burning and every minute those in the caboose expected to be roasted alive. They lay down on the floor to keep from smothering, occasionally some of the men would come out on their stomachs and scrape sand on the burning ties to keep the flames from the caboose.

Practically all the livestock in the country is burned. So intense was the heat in the streets that a horse died while hitched to a telephone pole.

It was reported that the Shooner school was saved but this is not so. Not a building in the town escaped.

Relief Measures.

Baudette, Minn., Oct. 10.—Two cars of provisions have arrived and a relief committee has been organized. The town of Roosevelt and Williams are still in danger, but Warroad is safe.

There is need of provisions, clothes and money. As many as 1,000 refugees have been taken South.

It is estimated here that the dead may reach 200. Great alarm is felt here because of the few settlers arriving from the burned area south of Baudette.

INVESTIGATE HAZING.

Charge Against Four Middies At Naval Academy.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 10.—Captain Bowyer, superintendent of the Naval Academy, today appointed a board of investigation, composed of Lieutenant Commander W. C. Bullard, president, and Lieutenant C. B. McVay and Guy W. Steele to inquire into the case of four first class men charged with hazing. It is stated that the four men under suspicion were caught in the room of their number last week with a party of fourth class men whom they were making compose songs and sing them at the same time, while others were forced to write love letters for the edification of the upper classmen.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS.

Disease is Quarantinable and Cases Should be Isolated.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Infantile paralysis is a quarantinable disease and all cases should be isolated, in the opinion of the members of the advisory board of the hygienic laboratory of the public health and marine hospital Surgeon General Wyman's report on the work of the service to prevent the introduction of cholera into the United States received unanimous approval. After listening to a report from Assistant Surgeon General Lavender, who recently made a study of pellagra in Italy, the board decided to continue research into the disease.

SEARCHED FAR AND WIDE

Noted Invalid, Now in Lykins, Ky., Says That She is in Better Health Than Ever Before.

Lykins, Ky.—"I have traveled far," writes Mrs. Martha Dingus, from this place, "in search of health. I doctored a great deal with a great many different doctors, but with little result.

I have been a noted invaled fir 20 years, for I had nearly every disease that my sex is heir to. But since using Cardui, I have been steadily improving. Though now 46 years old, I am in better health than I have been in 20 years.

I give Cardui the credit for it, and feel it my duty to inform you what Cardui has done for me."

The reason why Cardui is so exceptionally successful in relieving women's troubles, after other treatments fail, is that it is a woman's tonic—a strengthening remedy for women, made especially for women, from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and help nature to build up the womanly constitution. Not a strong, mineral mixture, but a mild, vegetable remedy, that cannot harm either young or old.

Your druggist will tell you that Cardui is just the remedy that you should try.

Will you do so?
